

7:10 PM

bumproduction21: your website is so totally misleading

Mike Solomon: ?

bumproduction21: like, i wanted to get some hitmen, and ur website is totally useless bumproduction21: i wanted some thugs, and u got jack about it

Mike Solomon: oh, i'm sorry

Mike Solomon: hate to disappoint bumproduction21: send me a link again

Mike Solomon: ?

bumproduction21: link me ur site bumproduction21: i forgot address

Mike Solomon: <http://culater.net> bumproduction21: yah, well it links to that page from like hiredthug or something bumproduction21: and im lookin to get someones ass kicked

Mike Solomon: ah

bumproduction21: and then your page is just full of crap

Mike Solomon: you want hiredgoons.com

Mike Solomon: i'm no longer in the thugging business bumproduction21: yah, hiredgoons.com

Mike Solomon: over 18, etc, etc bumproduction21: and it goes to ur broke ass page bumproduction21: which is about like..nothing bumproduction21: its like the cream of the crap

Mike Solomon: yes, "broke ass" like ur english bumproduction21: like my gf's live journal looks better

Mike Solomon: as i said, sorry to disappoint bumproduction21: and its automated bumproduction21: you should get that autodirect fixed bumproduction21: so you stop dissapointing people

7:15 PM

Mike Solomon: how mean you?

bumproduction21: how mean me?

bumproduction21: you have a site about literally nothing bumproduction21: that opens when someone goes to www.hiredgoons.com bumproduction21: so if im looking for some hired goons for the next small town mafia im orchestrating, im left dick in hand because of your website bumproduction21: i mean, atleast post an apology on your front page

Mike Solomon: i do see your angle bumproduction21: because come on, if im the sort of guy who is looking into hiring some goons, do you think i really want to read your blog about what current web-based apps you are working with?

bumproduction21: i think not bumproduction21: and if im already so pissed that im lookin into hiring goons, and then your page pushes me to the epitome of irate, why would i not just hire an extra goon to knock you off too?

bumproduction21: thats why for your own safety you should probably put some sort of apology up on the main page, so that people dont waste their time reading your incoherent net babble
